AMI (CANADA)
WORKSHOP

Elise Huneke – Stone
AMI Director of Elementary Training
MNW, Portland, OR

Originally from Connecticut, Elise Huneke-Stone went to Portland in 1980 to attend Reed College, graduating with a B.A. in Psychology. She earned her AMI Elementary diploma in 1987 and her Primary diploma in 2010, and has a Master's in Education from Loyola University Maryland. With twenty-one years of classroom experience, Elise has taught at both lower and upper elementary levels. In addition to her extensive Montessori work, including several years as an Adolescent Guide and lecturer, Elise has worked with families as a certified natural childbirth educator and doula.

Open to holders of all Montessori Elementary Teacher Diplomas.

LOVING LITERACY AND POETRY

In The Advanced Montessori Method, Vol. 2, Maria Montessori tells of the children's unexpected interest in some adult history books she read aloud. Montessori notes that one author said his purpose was "to write a book flaming with both truth and with love, which would awaken [the readers]". Join Elise for an exploration of how we can kindle a love of literacy and how our literacy work with the children, especially when it involves poetry, can be characterized by zeal, truth, and love.

Please bring a notebook and a children's picture book (5–20 pages) that you enjoy reading aloud for your use in the small-group portion of this workshop. It does not have to be "elementary".
